Early Years Foundation Stage Teacher

The Dean Trust is seeking to appoint a talented and enthusiastic EYFS Teacher to join our dedicated team at Partington Central Academy. The core purpose of the role will be to be responsible for the education and welfare of our nursery class at the direction of the EYFS lead and the Executive Headteacher.

The Dean Trust has a number of high performing schools and a proven track record of sustained improvement. The Dean Trust's core values include traditional academic education, excellent discipline and respect, resulting in improved attainment and progress. "Believe, Achieve, Succeed" has been embraced by all of the schools in The Dean Trust.

The Dean Trust is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and young people and expects all staff and volunteers to share this commitment. All post holders are subject to pre-employment safeguarding checks, including an enhanced Disclosure and Barring Check.

Main Purpose of the Role

- To carry out teaching duties and the professional duties of a teacher as described in the Teachers' Pay and Conditions document, including duties assigned by the Executive Headteacher / Head of Schools.
- To facilitate and encourage learning which enables pupils to achieve high standards. To share and support the corporate responsibility for the well-being, education and discipline of all pupils.
- To be committed to safeguarding and protecting the welfare of children.

Key Responsibilities

- Modelling the highest standards of personal and professional conduct.
- Demonstrating the highest standards of teaching, learning and behaviour management as an EYFS teacher.
- Developing high quality, safe and stimulating learning environments, both inside and outdoors.
- Promoting and actively engaging with our positive ethos and school values, both inside and outside of the classroom.
- Setting high expectations that inspire, challenge and motivate pupils.
- Be responsible for the education and welfare of a designated class of children at the direction of the Executive Headteacher / Head of School, in accordance with the requirements of the Conditions of Employment of School Teachers.
- Have due regard for the requirements of the Early Years Curriculum, this school's aims, objectives, schemes of work and policies, as well as contributing to the ethos of the school.
- Plan, prepare and teach lessons and sequences of lessons to the classes they are assigned within the context of the school's plans, curriculum and schemes of work as directed.
- Teach, according to their educational needs, the pupils assigned to you, including the setting and marking of work carried out by the pupil in school and elsewhere.
- Assess, observe, monitor, record and report on the learning needs, development, progress and attainment of assigned pupils.
- Be accountable for pupils' attainment, progress and outcomes.
- Deploy support staff effectively to support learning.
- Participate in arrangements for the appraisal and review of own performance.
- Participate in arrangements for further training, take responsibility for own professional development and undertake relevant CPD.
- Liaise effectively with parents/carers to develop excellent communication, strong home-school relationships and to maximise their involvement in the learning process.
- Collaborate effectively with the Key Stage 1 team to ensure curricular continuity and progression and an effective transition into Year 1.

Key Responsibilities

- Be committed to a multi-agency approach, liaising with external agencies where appropriate.
- Interact on a professional level with colleagues, establishing and maintaining excellent working relationships to promote the effective delivery of the EYFS curriculum and maximise children's achievement.
- To embrace and remain up to date with current educational practice and local and national initiatives.
- Make a positive contribution to the wider life and ethos of the school.
- Have the highest regard for health and safety and the need to safeguard pupil's well-being, in accordance with statutory provisions.
- Have proper and professional regard for the ethos, policies and practices of the school.
- Demonstrate a commitment to partnership working with our schools across The Dean Trust.

All employees have the responsibility to:

- Ensure any documentation produced is to a high standard and is in line with the brand style
- Be aware and comply with all policies and procedures relating to safeguarding, child protection, health, safety and security, confidentiality and data protection, reporting all concerns to the appropriate person
- Participate in training and other learning activities as required
- Participate in the school's People Development Process
- Provide appropriate guidance and supervision and assist in the training and development of staff as appropriate
- To represent the school/academy at events as appropriate
- To support and promote the school/academy ethos
- To undertake any other duties and responsibilities as required that are covered by the general scope of the post
- To undertake any other reasonable duties at the request of the Executive Team and/or Headteacher

All post holders must comply with The Dean Trust professional standards. The job description will be reviewed as necessary and is subject to modification and amendment at any time after consultation with the post holder.
